- Every associate is required to punch at the biometric upon entry into the office to ensure his/her attendance.
- Unauthorized absence or absence without permission from duty for a continuous period of 4 working days would make you lose your lien on employment. In such case the organization reserves the right to terminate your employment without any notice.

OFFICE TIMING AND WEEKLY OFF

The organisation encourages the associate to use time in office judiciously.

The office timings are as follows:

- Monday to Friday: 9:30/10:00 am to 6:30/7:00 pm (Kindly choose a slot and email it to your manager)
- All Saturdays and Sundays are considered as weekly off for associates of BFG. Any associate, who wishes to come to office on a weekend or Holidays, must take prior permission of his immediate superior. On such days also he may come to office only between 9.30 am to 6.30 pm.
- Considering 9:30 am as your reporting time every associate should enter the office premises at 9.30 am or before that. If an associate is entering after 9.45 am without prior information (only in case of emergency with a proof attached) that would be considered as a half day for that associate.
- Considering 9:30 am as your reporting time, if an associate comes to the office after 9:45 a.m. more than 3 times in a month, he will be marked half day for every subsequent instance of such late comings.
- If someone is on-duty (out of office), he has to inform his Team Lead/Manager and Team Lead should sign the register on behalf of the team member. At the end of the day if the attendance is not signed, the particular associate will be marked as absent for the day.
- Lunch time is from 01:30pm to 02:00pm. There is always flexibility in terms of the mentioned timing. But the duration will remain same, i.e. 30 minutes.
- 9.30 am to 2.00 pm is Half day of the first half and 2.00 pm to 6.30 pm is the half day of the second half.

- Associate working less than 8 hours and more than 4 hours continuously, during the official working hours, will be marked half day absent.
- Associate working less than 4 hours continuously will be marked full day absent.
- Associate is supposed to complete 9 hours in office premises. Flexibility is permitted i.e, you can complete 9 hours from 9.30 am to 6.30 pm, or 10.30 am to 7.30 pm. After 9.45/10.45 am(15 minutes after your reporting time) it might be considered a half day, depending on the above mentioned points.

TELEPHONE ETIQUETTES

Excellent telephone communication can make the difference between winning and losing a contract. One lost contract will lose the vital word of mouth recommendations and that could lead to the loss potential ten other clients. Your first sentence is very important and can affect the entire call. So, prepare how you would start your conversation before the call. Things to keep in mind while making a call -

Before making an out going call make sure you always have:

- Clarity for the objectives for the call
- Correct documents in hand
- Note Pad/Pen
- The phone number/Extension
- The name of the person you are calling

Points to remember when receiving a call

- Never leave a phone ringing for more than four rings.
- Make clear who you are and who the company is and create a welcoming atmosphere.
- If you are the one receiving the call, avoid doing other tasks at the same time. Concentrate on the caller.
- Never leave a caller on hold for long periods of time. if you are going to take time to help a caller ask for their telephone number and call them back when you are able to help.

Transferring a call

- Tell the caller you are transferring the call
- Listen for dial tone
- Dial the extension number
- When you hear the number ring, hangup
- If the extension is busy inform the caller

EMAIL ETIQUETTES

Associates should scan all files / data prior to importing it to their Computers or the local network. To assist, all Computers in BGF have had virus detection software installed in their hard drives. The software is updated with the latest release on a regular basis.

Disciplinary action, up to and including termination, will be taken on any staff found intentionally infecting the system with such viruses or system bugs or copying / downloading unauthorized software.

INTERNET POLICY

Organization provides Internet access to associates to allow them to be more productive. This policy is important to make the associate realize what they can and cannot do on the Internet.

- Internet is a profound business tool but used improperly, the Internet can subject every organization to harassment claims, countless hours of lost productivity and innumerable security leaks and vulnerabilities.
- Inside the office premise Internet should only be used for fulfilling the job responsibilities.
- Associate should not use internet

To participate in auctions through different sites

To read entertainment news

To surf adult sites

To access websites for the purpose of trading in stocks, commodities or any other instruments

To place bets or for betting of any sort

To access sites, which are not in conformation with BFG values

Associates violating these rules as also any other legal provisions, will be solely responsible for any action that may be brought upon them. Associates using Internet access could knowingly or unknowingly violate international copyright law, which could further expose the organization to liability, and therefore be careful when accessing the internet.

Breach of this policy shall be treated as a serious offence of the terms herein and your services are liable to be terminated without notice.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

You are expected to maintain utmost Confidentiality in regard to the affairs of the company and ensure confidentiality of all activities done or information acquired while on the job, during and post employment with BFG. You will have no authority to carry copies of any of the confidential documents, outside the office premise or to divulge any information to unauthorized parties. BFG associates will also be required to sign Non Disclosure Agreements that may be drawn up from time to time. Breach of this provision shall be treated as a gross violation of the terms herein and your services are liable to be terminated without notice.
