FOUNDATION LEVEL

▼ FOUNDATION PHASE (Execution-Oriented | Individual Contributors)

◆ L1 – Trainee / Intern

- Joins with clear understanding of required tools and skills
- Expected to deliver tasks with defined timelines
- May depend on executional support, but must own timely delivery
- Performs simple tasks based on clear briefs
- Applies feedback reliably and follows structured processes

◆ L2 – Junior

- Begins independently executing low-complexity tasks
- Understands brand tone, review loops, and team structure
- Requires moderate handholding for review and quality control
- Starts contributing to internal discussions
- Learns by doing, while delivering reliably

◆ L3 – Associate

- Independently delivers recurring or mid-level tasks
- Owns task-level deadlines and accuracy
- Communicates effectively within the team
- Understands project objectives and contextual expectations
- Begins suggesting improvements and efficiencies

◆ L4 – Specialist

- Skilled in tools and delivers consistently high-quality output
- Contributes to mid-high complexity projects independently
- Mentors juniors (L1-L3) when needed
- Collaborates across projects and begins cross-functional contributions
- Participates in creative/strategic thinking within the team

◆ L5 – Senior Specialist

- Sets quality standards in their vertical
- Supports and guides Specialists and Associates
- Drives productivity and process improvements within the team
- May begin leading mini-projects or owning work modules
- Interfaces occasionally with clients on delivery updates (if needed)
- It is mandatory for a Senior Executive to take leadership responsibility for team members across Levels 1 to 4.

ELEVATE LEVEL

↑ ELEVATE PHASE (Team & Strategy-Oriented | Functional Management)

◆ L6 – Team Lead

- Owns delivery, quality, and productivity of an entire vertical (e.g., Design, Content)
- Allocates tasks, manages timelines, and coaches the full ops team (L1-L5)
- First escalation point for execution issues
- Maintains direct communication with clients for feedback and updates
- Tracks performance data and shares team insights with managers
- Responsible for department-level project costing and justifying cost-to-output efficiency

◆ L7 – Manager (Create / Promote Phase)

- Manages cross-functional teams under Create or Promote
- Aligns daily team functions with phase-level business objectives
- Leads resourcing decisions, reviews team workload, and resolves bottlenecks
- Collaborates with Team Leads and Senior Manager for delivery smoothness
- Tracks and reviews delivery timelines, quality, and retention
- Works closely with project stakeholders and clients for alignment
- Owns cost efficiency and output ROI across departments under their phase

◆ L8 – Senior Manager

- Integrates Create and Promote operations
- Reviews KPIs, delivery health, and people performance across multiple verticals
- Leads process optimization, standardization, and inter-phase synergy
- Owns monthly performance dashboards and delivery audits
- Works closely with AVPs to design OKRs and quarterly direction
- Drives retention, promotion recommendations, and internal training direction

◆ L9 – AVP (Create / Promote)

- Strategic head of either Create or Promote
- Defines phase-specific goals, frameworks, and tools
- Leads budgeting, capacity planning, hiring projections, and upskilling initiatives
- Manages phase-wide performance, quality control, and team satisfaction
- Collaborates with marketing/sales/tech teams to align client needs with delivery capabilities
- Owns costing, innovation, optimization, and transformation initiatives

PINNACLE LEVEL

L10 – VP (Over Create & Promote)

- Unified leadership across both phases
- Owns delivery strategy, culture, and team evolution roadmap
- Guides AVPs in forecasting, operational excellence, and business impact
- Represents delivery in leadership conversations with COO/CEO
- Leads strategic innovation, tech adoption, and knowledge sharing models
- Aligns internal systems with external growth vision

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION SYSTEM

Performance Evaluation System

Every team member is evaluated across:

- 5 KPIs (fixed for all roles)
- Additional Parameters (e.g., communication, conduct, understanding briefs, rework, deadlines, etc.)
- Peer Feedback
- Each parameter holds equal weight, and scoring is non-compensatory (i.e., poor performance in one can't be masked by excellence in another).

Score Range	Action	Details
Below 65	 1-week PIP → Exit if no improvement	Serious underperformance. Requires immediate correction.
65 – 75	 2-week PIP → Exit if no improvement	Needs urgent focus on deliverables and behavior.
75 – 85	⏸ No Increment + 1-Month Review	Performance not meeting expectations. If still in this band after 1 month → moved to PIP.
85 – 90	 Eligible for Increment only	Good performance, meeting role expectations.
90 – 95	 Eligible for Increment + Promotion	Strong performance with signs of leadership and initiative.
95+	 Eligible for Fast-Track Promotion within 6 months	Outstanding performance. May bypass regular promotion cycles.
