

Work From Home (WFH) Policy

1. Objective

The purpose of this policy is to define the eligibility and guidelines for employees seeking Work From Home (WFH) arrangements while ensuring smooth business operations and productivity.

2. Applicability

This policy applies to all full-time employees of the organization.

3. Policy Guidelines

a. During Probation Period

- Work From Home is not permitted during the probation period.
- In case of genuine emergencies, employees must inform and seek approval from both their Reporting Manager and the HR Department.

b. After Probation (6 Months Post Probation)

- Work From Home is not allowed during the first six months after Probation.
- However, in exceptional or emergency situations, employees may request WFH with prior approval from their Reporting Manager and HR.

c. After Probation+ 6 Months

- Employees become eligible for 1 Work From Home day per month.
- WFH must be pre-approved by the Reporting Manager and informed to HR in advance.
- Employees must remain available during working hours and ensure all responsibilities are fulfilled while working remotely.

4. General Guidelines

- WFH is a privilege and not an entitlement, and approvals depend on work requirements and manager discretion.
- Employees must ensure timely communication, availability on official channels, and adherence to company policies while working remotely.
- The company reserves the right to modify or withdraw this policy based on operational requirements.
